Party with Personality

- More than what you think
- Deeper than what you know
- Easier than you realize
- More fun than you imagined

What is a personality party?

A service of Anita Agers-Brooks, Purposed Personality™ parties are strategically designed to reduce stress, increase happiness, and improve life.

Years ago, I set out on a quest to discover why the ancient Greek proverb, “Know thyself,” was crucial to living a happier and more fulfilled life. But I needed to know how to figure out more about who I was. While I looked for what would give me insight, I also found where and when I could use it to help me understand other people. Both my personal and work relationships improved dramatically.

I’m thrilled to tell you I unearthed exactly what I was looking for — and more. Now it’s my mission to share this life-altering information with the world.

So let’s have a party, digging deeper into the human mind and how it impacts our relationships, while learning in a fun way. I promise, there are surprises.

You can select from one of our themes, choose your own, or simply go with a spontaneous vibe.

“We all have strengths and weaknesses, none are better than others, however, knowing what they are can save us much conflict, stress, and grief.”

—Anita Agers Brooks, CPT, CCS, CLTF

You might want to attend a Personality Party if:

- You are in any kind of relationship with people
- You have living parents and/or siblings
- You are dating, engaged, or married
- You have children, nieces, nephews, cousins, etc.
- You work with others
- You have customers and/or clients
- You need to de-stress and laugh while figuring out how to repair or improve relationship issues
